Our Residential Back Doors

Our residential aluminum doors are a popular product that have been designed to match our Ali 47 Windows and our aluminium bi-folding doors.

This range of doors and windows offer slim lines, modern locking and great looks. The range also offers thermal efficiency, strength and security.

Our doors come with a wide range of furniture, colours, thresholds and glass - to suit any home. Due to the modern design features, these doors also comply to Document L October 2010 for new build, refurbishment and extensions.

The optional Low Threshold greatly reduces the step-over required.

For added security two substantial hook locks secure into the frame - preventing the door from being lifted upwards. Along with the hook locks the dead-latch firmly secures the door to the frame.

The slim-line butt hinges on our aluminium doors are much slimmer and less obtrusive than many PVC door hinges.
